

Editorial

After some difficulties we are happy to release the Jan-26 issue of PST.

I apologize for the delay. We faced some difficulties in 2025. A team member had illness in family and could not devote time for work. I suffered a CVA and was in ICU and could not do any work.

Another team member abstained from work .

We believe the journal is serving a need and have decided to resume work with a new team.

Dr. Tharanga Gamage has joined as Review Editor, Dr. Ketaki Gharpure, Consultant Ped Urology, Guy's Hospital London UK, has joined as Editor, Dr. Gajanan Padmawar and Dr. Pooja Nagare have joined the Editorial board.

We have decided to try new formatting please send mail to tell us which style would you prefer to.

A conference is arranged in March-2026 at Aurangabad. (Chatrapati Sambhajnagar)

Prof. Sameh Shehata and other surgeons will participate. The flyer is included in this issue.

We request you to register and join.

All work is done by team members on a voluntary basis. They are donating their time.

We request all to give a small donation using the QR Code (in INDIA) Or bank transfer (outside INDIA)

To help us pay the essential expenses of work space, DOI and paid assistant.

Considering the new team some errors may have crept in. I accept full responsibility and apologize.

The journal is the voice of Pediatric Surgeons in Africa and Asia. It must live.
